Message from
Council Chair Tommy Waters

Aloha,

On behalf of the Council of the City and County of Honolulu, I welcome you to Honolulu Hale and invite you to participate in the legislative process. My colleagues on the Council, myself and our staff are committed to serving the public. We welcome the challenges before us and embrace the opportunities for progress and achievement on behalf of all O'ahu communities.

We face some of the most difficult challenges in recent memory in the months and years ahead. We learned the lessons from past economic hardships that our communities and our economy cannot afford to go into starvation and hibernation mode during times like these. We need to step up and invest in our communities, our infrastructure, and in diverse economic sectors that will ensure that we are more self-sufficient, more sustainable, and don't find ourselves in the same position another 10 years from now. This is a time that our community needs leadership from all levels of government the most, and we are going to continue to find and advance new, bold solutions for the age-old problems that our community faced before the pandemic and that were exposed and exacerbated so dramatically during this pandemic.

Now more than ever, we need to come together as a community to ensure that we stay strong and healthy. We also need to recognize those key principles, those values that guide us. For myself, I believe that aloha is the piko of who we are, the center of why I believe we as a community will emerge more resilient than ever. Aloha is the most powerful framework for how to lead. I hope that the Council may serve as a platform for your ideas to be heard, debated, and respected.

Please be safe and vigilant. Mahalo nui, Aloha, and God bless!
